ELDERLY CARE CONFERENCE

CONTINUUM OF CARE

28th and 29th November 2017

MAHSA University
Bandar Saujana Putra

Continuum of Care is the key concept of this conference which encompasses the entire holistic care system: spanning a variety of health services and delivery methods of the health environment, to meet an individual's health requirements effectively over a period of time. This conference explores the concepts of aging from middle age through to end of life care and everything in-between.

This conference focuses on key concepts of elderly health care with Day One focusing on Opportunities for Future Elderly Care, Healthy Aging, Dementia Care, the person centered approach with an open forum exploring the Australian elderly care market.

Day Two builds on the emerging themes from Day One and emphasizes the current state of play in Malaysia's elderly care, exploring Community in Home Care Models, how to provide Best Practice chronic and palliative care and delivers solutions to enhance Malaysia's elderly care system by sharing experience with the Australian market.

The "Continuum of Care" conference merges local elderly care experience and knowledge from MAHSA University which builds the platform for our international Australian key note speakers to go beyond the current Malaysian elder care system and explore the opportunities, challenges and expectations Malaysia is currently facing now and into the future.

Who should attend?
